Agenda Item:	2000 CRIME STATISTICS/VICTIMIZATION SURVEY – MIKE HADDON
Notes:	Mike Haddon presented information on the Crime Victimization survey. To date over 60% of the surveys have been received. August is the target to have a complete analysis of the survey. Chief Hendricks mentioned that Mike should be commended on his presentations of the crime rates. He has used the information to secure additional funding from his local government and re-focus the police department to deal with the high crime areas.

Agenda Item:	SPECIAL SESSION – CAMILLE ANTHONY
Notes:	Camille Anthony distributed the proposed criminal law amendments for the 2001 First Special Session and provided a brief discussion on each item. Camille mentioned an additional item that was placed on the call – licensing of attorneys to practice law.

Agenda Item:	JUSTICE CONSORTIUM REPORT – CAMILLE ANTHONY RUSS VAN VLEET
Notes:	Camille Anthony distributed the latest draft of the Justice Consortium Report. The Consortium is moving forward with great interest from the University of Utah. Russ Van Vleet reported that five colleges and 19 faculty members have expressed interest in the Consortium concept. The Summer Institute will be the first class in the Consortium, beginning July 16-20. To date, 22 students have signed up for the classes. Additionally, Dean Jannah Mather has officially recognized a criminal justice degree. Russ also reported the Sentencing Guidelines study is finished. He will soon begin the out-of-state placement study. There is also interest in providing some studies at the prison regarding mentally ill offenders.

Agenda Item:	BUDGET HOLDBACKS – DAVID WALSH
Notes:	Dave Walsh reported on the revenue forecast for FY02, which is down $40 million. He also explained the Governor's request for agencies to identify administrative holdbacks of 4 percent. One percent of that could be in one-time costs with 3 percent ongoing. The full impact may not be known until the Governor puts his budget together – possibly not until November. Mike Chabries discussed the early release program at Corrections. He mentioned that the interfaith community has stepped up to help with resources for drug offenders. In addition, the positive reward program at the prison has cut down on assaults. Mike will prepare a PowerPoint report for the Commission at a later meeting. Mike Sibbett mentioned the Board of Pardons and Parole is partnering with Corrections to parole low risk offenders. They are cutting approximately 30-60 days off of existing parole dates. They are pleased with the united front from all agencies in getting a successful rehabilitation program in place. This is a smart approach to crime.

Agenda Item:	SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS – CCJJ STAFF
	Susan Burke reported on the Utah Board of Juvenile Justice's new evaluation tool. An evaluation intern has been assisting the Board for the past few years and has developed a risk and protective factor instrument. This provides baseline data on risk populations. In addition, a questionnaire for subgrantees has been developed. The Juvenile Justice Board will hold its retreat on Friday where Treva Bell will be honored for her report on Utah being in compliance with the Juvenile Justice Delinquency Prevention Act. The report has been posted on the web as a model for other states.

Notes:	Ron Gordon reported for the Utah Council on Victims. Crime Victims Reparation (CVR) hosted a successful conference in April. The Council is now preparing for a Victim Assistance Academy, which is a week long conference for victim advocates. The Council is participating in preliminary discussions on victims being informed of offender release or hearing dates. CVR has received authority from the legislature to fund other victim services. Jennifer Hemenway reported on the IT subcommittee. Currently they are working on integrating the criminal justice information systems. A two-day retreat is scheduled to have an exchange of information and create one integration plan. Mike Haddon reported that the research committee met last week for the first time. He distributed two handouts; one showing the ongoing studies; and the second listing requested studies. The committee will prioritize the requested studies and present for Commission approval. Ron Gordon reported on the Juvenile Expungement subcommittee. The subcommittee will focus on notification issues and certificate of eligibility. Future meetings will focus on types of records that should be included in expungement orders and who should have the burden of notifying agencies. The subcommittee hopes to have a draft bill to present to the Commission in August. Dave Walsh reported on the Cross Education subcommittee. Currently they are developing an agenda for a presentation at the judges conference on alternatives to incarceration for people with disabilities. The group has identified several areas to study and is currently prioritizing the list. Sue Behle added that through the interagency outreach, 180 law enforcement personnel have been trained on dealing with people with disabilities.

Agenda Item:	OTHER
Notes:	The USAAV Council will host a Club Drug Conference at the E Center on August 10. Camille Anthony presented marketing materials from Asay Marketing. It was suggested that Commission members do profiles with pictures for one of the publications. The CCJJ newsletter will be distributed quarterly. Next meeting August 21, 2001.
